BEFORE DEPOSITORS CAN WITHDRAW MONEY

EXCHANGES ARE NOW SAFE

Pool of Ten Million Dollars Formed to Tide Them Over—Commercial Houses Safe—Jenkins' Trust Co.,
of Brooklyn, Fails

New York, Oct. 25.—Union Dime Savings Bank at Thirty-second street and Broadway, this afternoon posted a notice that it will require sixty days' notice from all depositors desiring to withdraw. It has $27,450,000 due to depositors.

Jenkins Trust Company, of Brooklyn, not an important institution, closed its doors this afternoon. Its total of deposits is about $3,500,000.

Representatives of the largest banks of this city agreed at a meeting today to require from thirty to sixty days' notice of depositors desiring to withdraw their accounts.

The Trust Company of America, and the Lincoln Trust Company successfully withstood all demands of depositors throughout the day and closed at 3 o'clock, the usual hour.

A pool of $10,000,000 or more was formed at a conference held at the clearing house this afternoon to take care of the money needs of the stock exchanges. It was confidently thought that this section would tide over the situation so completely so far as the stock exchange is concerned.

All loans made today will be carried until Monday. First open loan of money on call was made about 12:20 in lots of $5,000 to $100,000 at 50 per cent.

Among rumors afloat in New York there have been many affecting a number of leading commercial houses. These rumors have evidently been started for the purpose of affecting the stock market. A man high in authority in the firm of John W. Wamaker makes the following statement: "The rumors that have been in circulation regarding this firm recently are without foundation. Affairs of the firm were never in better shape than they are now and the business of the New York store was never better."

THE FINANCIAL SITUATION

Reports From All Over the Country

Show Firm Conditions in

Money Market

Portland, Ore.—Banks in Portland are not affected by the financial disturbances in New York.

St. Louis.—The leading bankers of St. Louis were unanimous today in stating that there is nothing abnormal in the local banking situation and that the demand for money is but little stronger than it is ordinarily in the fall of the year.

Denver.—C. B. Kountze, president of the Colorado National Bank; James D. Thatcher, president of the Denver National Bank; F. G. Moffatt, cashier of the First National Bank and other prominent bankers of the city unite in the statement that financial disturbances in New York and Pittsburgh will not affect business in this city.

Milwaukee.—That the banks in Milwaukee are very sound is the general opinion of the leading bankers here. Trust company institutions are merely of a fiduciary character and are not affected by the money situation.

Cleveland.—Prominent bankers of this city state that the Cleveland banks were never in better shape than they are at the present time.

Kansas City.—E. F. Swinney, president of the First National Bank, said this afternoon: "Kansas City is no way interested in New York. There is no alarm here over the New York situation."

Philadelphia.—With one accord officers of banks and trust companies assert with all confidence that there is no trouble in Philadelphia and that the situation here is immeasurably stronger than that which exists in New York.

Boston.—Undisturbed conditions continued in financial circles here today. The mining stock market opened fractionally lower.

Cincinnati.—The New York financial situation is regarded as local to that city by Cincinnati bankers.

Indianapolis.—V. T. Malott, president of the Indiana National Bank, expressed the feeling in local financial circles today when he said: "There has been a general stringency in the money market and rates of interest have consequently advanced. But there has been no apprehension felt as to any serious trouble to the general and legitimate business of the country."

Chicago.—Bankers in this city declared after close of business today that no uneasiness prevailed here regarding the local financial condition. None of the banks here are tied up with Wall street interests.

San Francisco.—The financial troubles in Wall street have caused no disturbances in local banking circles.

Atlanta.—Bank officials of Atlanta say the trouble in New York financial affairs has not affected the banks of this city in the least.

New Orleans.—Difficulty in borrowing money in large sums has been the only marked feature of the financial situation here. Local bankers have assumed an attitude of preparedness which has resulted in a general sense of security.

Boston.—The local financial situation was still unshaken today by the upheaval in New York, beyond fractional declines in some stocks in the New York list.

Memphis.—The bankers and financiers of this city are unanimous in the opinion that the present development in the Eastern financial situation will be practically without effect locally.

SEASON TO OPEN

MISSISSIPPI LAWS RELATIVE TO SHOOTING OF QUAIL

OLD LAW AND NEW

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 25.—The quail season opens up in Mississippi on Nov. 1 and hunters are getting out their guns and preparing their dogs for the sport of hunting. There are four months during which the state law allows the shooting of quail, and this year there has been little or no disposition to violate the law by beginning the sport prematurely.

Under the present law the state not only limits the time during which the festive bird may be killed to the four months between the first of November and the first of March, but gives the boards of supervisors in each county the right to further limit the sport, or to prohibit it altogether at their discretion, but so far as can be ascertained none of the counties have taken any action along this line, all believing, no doubt, that the state law is good enough for all purposes.

Prior to the passage of the new law, when the matter was in the hands of the supervisors in each county, there was a good deal of confusion in the minds of hunters as to when the season was out in any particular county, and this confusion led to numerous violations of the law. Sometimes this was done through ignorance and more frequently through more professed ignorance, which made a very good cloak for the violators to hide behind, and the old law came to be regarded as something of a joke.

MYSTERIOUS EXCAVATION

Digging of Small Pit Arouses a Great Deal of Speculation

Lula, Miss., Oct. 25.—Inhabitants of E. H. Maddux' plantation made a discovery early Thursday that has created good deal of comment. Some unknown party or parties entered the plantation, in the night, and excavated a place about the size of an ordinary infant's grave. It is the general belief that someone was in search of a hidden treasure, or intended to secrete the body of some infant there. The matter remains a mystery.

GENERAL BOOTH EXHAUSTED

Commander of Salvation Army Feels
Results of Hard Work

Columbus, O., Oct. 25.—Dr. Wm. Booth, commander of the Salvation Army, had a restless night after the exertion of his meeting and address at the Board of Trade auditorium last night, but he was reported resting quietly today. Commissioner Alexander M. Nicholl, the general's private secretary, said the general did not sleep much, having only fitful naps during the night.

Hallowe'en Masquerade

The Masquerade and Hallowe'en frolic which will take place at the Cannon building next Thursday, given by the ladies of the Catholic church, promises to draw out a big crowd of masquers and mirth makers. The line of grand march will start at 9 o'clock and will prove a sight worth seeing. The price of admission to the masquerade is 50 cents, children 25 cents; supper 25 cents extra.

Most Unique Novelty

The most unique novelty ever presented by a troupe of acrobats is that of the Marnello-Maruite family, who are making their first appearance in America with Ringling Brothers' circus, doing hip-flaps and leaps from shoulder to shoulder they play operatic music on sweet-toned Swiss bells.

IMMORALITY IS ALLEGED

FRIENDS OF VON MOLTKE ARE ACCUSED

WILL ASK KAISER TO TESTIFY

Wilhelm To Be Requested to Prove That Defendant Never Used Office
to Further Political Ends—Hearing
Is Sensational

Berlin, Oct. 25.—The hearing of the case of Count Kuno von Moltke former military governor of Berlin, against Maxilian Harden, editor of Die Zukunft, for defamation of character, is growing more and more sensational every day.

Dr. Von Gordon, counsel for the plaintiff, declared that he would eventually ask for the testimony of Emperor William to prove that Count von Moltke has never used his official position to promote political ends.

Herr Bernstein charged that the court clique, of which Von Moltke was a member, was guilty of infamous secret crimes.

Harden has said that he will call as a witness, Paul Liman, the author of a life of Emperor William, who will testify that the late Prince von Bismarck once expressed himself concerning the immoral excesses of Prince zu Eulenburg in the strongest terms imaginable. Harden will also call Prince von Buelow, the imperial chancellor and field marshal, and Count von Hulsens-Haseler, chief of the emperor's military cabinet.

The bench has decided to admit testimony to prove that alleged unnatural practices prevailed among the friends of von Moltke. The public will be excluded from the hearings, but representatives of the press will be allowed to remain.

An army officer who had served in the guard Du Corps at Potsdam, was called as a witness today and testified to having taken part in unnatural orgies at the house of Count Lynar, which had resulted in the dismissal from the service in disgrace of the count and Lieut.-Gen. Von Hohenhausen.

The witness said he heard that Von Moltke was present at this occasion, but he thought zu Eulenburg certainly was there. The court has decided to reject zu Eulenburg's medical certificate submitted yesterday saying he was too ill to attend the hearing, and he has been summoned to appear tomorrow.

BIG SUM PAID FOR STALLION

J. R. Keene Purchases Im Sain for Large Amount of Money

Keene's Hobby

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—James R. Keene has offered Barney Schreiber $150,000 for "Im Sain" and the owner wants two hundred thousand for the stallion, which has already sired race horses worth a million dollars. The deal will be closed tonight. Keene now has the greatest racing stable ever gotten together and intends to have the greatest breeding establishment in the world.

Baptists Will Hold Big Revival

The First Baptist church, of this city, is planning for a great revival, in the early part of November, under the leadership of Pastor-Evangelist Thomas S. Potts, of Memphis, Tenn.

At a recent congregational meeting various committees were appointed to look after every detail of the meeting. During the week of October 28, cottage prayer meetings will be held in every section of the city; during the following week there will be nightly services at the Baptist church conducted by the various pastors of the city; and on Monday, November 11, Dr. Potts comes to take up the work.

Every effort will be exerted to make the meeting a great one, great in point of attendance, great in atmosphere of purity, great in its power to uplift; and it is sincerely hoped that the entire community will become interested in and benefited by this spiritual movement.

Dr. Potts has been for years pastor of the Central Baptist Church, of Memphis, Tenn., one of the largest and most influential congregations in the denomination. In addition to his wonderful power as a soul winning speaker, he comes to Greenville filled with the inspiration and fire of the recent Cates' meeting in Memphis. A delightful spiritual and intellectual treat is in store for all those who are so fortunate as to hear him.

THE FARMER BUNCH

MAKE GOOD ON THE GRID-
IRON—DEFEATED GEORGIA
YESTERDAY

Columbus, Miss., Oct. 25.—The boys of the A. & M. are playing the football of their life this season and proving the teams that go up against the farmer bunch that they are wild and woolly and hard to tackle. Today, in this city, they smothered the strong eleven from Mercer college of Georgia by a score of 75 to 0. The team made its first touchdown after a minute's play. The score in the first half was 35, and in the second half they made 40.

Over three thousand people saw the Agriculturists of the A. & M. carry their colors to victory over their Georgia rivals.

PEONAGE CHARGE

Preferred Against Prominent Arkansas Farmer

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 25.—The Federal grand jury today indicted James Turner, a prominent planter of Ashley county, living near Hamburg, for peonage.

It is alleged that Turner paid a fine for a negro by the name of James Robinson, took him to his plantation and chained him to plow in the day time and in a corn crib at night.

The negro saved the chain from his neck with a pocket knife and escaped. A conspiracy between the magistrate and the planter is alleged. Other indictments to follow.

MEMPHIS CONCERN FAILS

New York Money Stringency Given as the Cause

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 25.—R. A. Hogue & Co., local lumber brokers, with St. Louis and Chicago connections, failed today for sixty thousand dollars and took the bankrupt law. Stringency in the New York money market and banks calling in their loans here, precipitated their failure.
